business year in which the amount of obligatory dividend, calculated in accordance with these Bylaws or with Section 202 of that law, exceeds the realized portion of the net profit for the business year, the General Meeting of Stockholders may, on a proposal by the management bodies, allocate the difference to constitution of a Future Earnings Reserve.

§ Two - Under Section 199 of the Corporate Law, the balance of profit reserves, other than the reserves for contingencies and future earnings, may not exceed the registered capital. When this limit is reached the General Meeting of Stockholders shall decide on the application of the excess amount, either for paying-in or for increase of the registered capital, or in distribution of dividends.

§ Three - The General Meeting of Stockholders may allocate a participation in the profits to the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Officers, in the circumstances and within the form and limits allowed by law.

Clause 32 On a proposal by the Executive Officers, approved by the Board of Directors, the Company may pay remuneration to the stockholders, as interest on their equity, up to the limit established by Section 9 of Law 9249 of 26 Dec 1995; and in accordance with subparagraph 7 of that Section any amounts thus disbursed may be deemed part of the obligatory dividend provided for by law and by these Bylaws.

Clause 33 Interim financial statements shall be prepared on the last day of June of each year, and the Executive Officers may:

- a) declare a semi-annual dividend, on account of the annual dividend;
- b) raise interim financial statements and declare dividends for shorter periods, on account of the annual dividend, as long as the total of the dividends paid in each half of the business year does not exceed the amount of the capital reserves;
- c) declare interim dividends on account of retained earnings or on account of profit reserves existing in the previous annual or half-yearly financial statements, on account of the annual dividend.

Clause 34 The annual financial statements shall, obligatorily, be audited by external auditors registered with the CVM (Comissão de Valores Mobiliários). Such auditors shall be chosen and/or dismissed by the Board of Directors, subject, as the case may be, to the terms of Paragraph 2 of Section 142 of the Corporate Law.
